Excerpt of pertinent information:

1. Your attention is called to statement in paragraph 3 of referenced document (WFP-4076) relative to French suspicions that General Constantin PETRE-LAZAR is a Communist agent. We have no evidence to the contrary, but have noted that suspicions regarding General PETRE-LAZAR were first voiced in certain Rumanian emigre circles when he began openly to support the position of the political parties as against that of General Nicolae RADESCU. . .

3. Your information relative to a scene between Generals RADESCU and PETRE-LAZAR in the presence of King Mihai is correct. From versions reaching us it appears that PETRE-LAZAR thereupon requested the King's permission to leave the room but was told to remain, probably indicating Royal support for his attitude. For your information only, Mihai has indicated to US diplomatic representatives in Switzerland his critical attitude toward General RADESCU and has stated that Royal assent was not given for the organization of RADESCU's "Union of Free Rumanians." . . .
